Doing A 360°

Sacred Spherical Strategies for Optimal Living

Let us turn 360 degrees to our brothers and sisters of the Dharma for spherical strategies. Dharma means teachings of the Buddha. There is a misconception that there are many Gods of Buddhism. Yes, there is Manjushri, Vajrasattva, and Tara – to name a few. These “Gods” are abstract, omniscient mind qualities of our true nature, inherently perfect as God is perfect. Avalokiteshvara, for example, is the God of Compassion. Tibetans believe that His Holiness the Dalai Lama is a physical emanation of this Godlike essence. For more compassion we do meditation practices, prayers and mantras of Avalokiteshvara to ‘perfect’ this. The Dalai Lama leads by example devoting his life to being compassionate. Similarly, to cultivate skillful means through wisdom, we focus on Manjushri.

In Tibetan Buddhist iconographical art (Thangkas) we see various Gods of Buddhism depicted. Each Buddha reflects a magical display of knowledge. Buddhists have a practice, like lawyers and doctors have a practice. Analogous to a pediatric physician, Buddhists “specialize” their enlightenment activities. When practicing on a particular aspect (law of attraction draws), we raise our vibratory frequency spiraling higher to optimal living. Best with Blessings, Nancy

Hello, friends!

Here is a synopsis of the new ADL improvements, which will help all of you expand your ministries and put our organization before the world at large. It all started not too long ago with Ike Bonelli, my husband to be. When he first met me, he wondered what ADL was all about so he decided to check it out on the internet. After several tries he was unable to find the existing website. He tried “ADL” and got all kinds of responses, such as the Anti Defamation League, but nothing related to our organization. He tried “love”, which led him to a mishmash of oddities, including questionable sites which may have been related to porn. He finally did locate the ADL website, after much difficulty, and subsequently told me that we were in need of web expansion in order to catch the interest of outsiders who had never heard of us.

Thus began our upgrades, with a new web site which will be easy to find, easy to understand and interactive for the participants. Ike is a businessman and graphic artist who is also a self named “techno weenie”. He said it was very important to have a memorable name. For example, most of you will have no trouble identifying “AFLAC” or “NASA”. Ike researched the net and was able to obtain the name of ADLove.org for us. Bill Selwa, our web master, is currently putting the finishing touches on its structure and content. You will hear updates and be able to access the site soon. It will be many faceted. It will have an area for your ministerial information, allowing seekers contact with you. You will be able to receive inquiries from parts of the world not accessible with our existing website. As a group we will reach further in our goals to bring Love to humankind. ADLove rolls over the tongue easily and has a catchy side to it. The site will have clear writing and auditory/visual elements aimed at explaining how ADL meets human needs.

If you attended the April 2009 meeting, you received a free audio CD done by our founders, which gives an overview of ADL's history, programs and goals. This CD or an upgraded version will be on the new website. The CD will be available on a limited number basis for those who could not be with us this April.

Handouts and other materials were also given out which can also be obtained in the future.

Our innovations have the spiritual aim of unifying our efforts in God's purpose for us on earth. Our angels and higher teachers have shown us that it is very, very important to “push” out into the world at this time. We are to be instrumental in world peace efforts and helping the people of earth love one another. We will be able to aid them in understanding the needs of others and cope with the differences between human cultural groups. WE ARE VERY IMPORTANT! We must come together and deliver our beautiful message. In All Love, the ADL guides and Barb Selwa

“The Reverends Joseph Bogucki and Peg Gordon prepare to deliver 80 Easter Baskets to the Children's Home Society on behalf of The Alliance of Divine Love Florida Chapter.”

The Sun is in Taurus through May 20th and it is The Bull's birthday month. Taurus is a fixed, earth sign which is very stable, although sometimes stubborn. You also love the planet Earth and love nature, but you also appreciate the finer things in life. Your ruling planet is Venus, the planet of love and beauty and you love good food, the arts and good company.

Abundant Jupiter and creative Neptune are in your solar 10th house of career this year. Some intense opportunities could appear that you should take advantage of. Jupiter attracts powerful people and Neptune can heighten your intuitive abilities. With Pluto beginning its long journey through Capricorn you will want to make changes in your life, just do not allow yourself to be manipulated in late April and August. Choose what you want to do and do it.

Try to complete as many goals and tasks as possible the first six days of the month as Mercury goes into retrograde on the 7th for the rest of the month. Technical gadgets will not work very well and any new major project will probably have to be redone, but it is an excellent time to reflect and keep a journal.

Jupiter conjuncts Neptune and Chiron in Aquarius all month; Neptune and Chiron have been bringing back old painful memories and perhaps causing hesitation in overcoming our fears. With Jupiter joining them, however, we suddenly have more confidence to step out of the past and into the present and future with courage and conviction.

Saturn which has been retrograde in Virgo since December 31st is turning direct on the 16th and many people have been reevaluating their health and ways to improve their lifestyle. After the end of the month, with both Mercury and Saturn going direct, you can go forward in your new plans for proper diet, exercise, emotional and spiritual clarity.
